

A friendly person from the credit union can help you open up a share savings account. This will put you on the path toward your savings goal.

John is putting in or depositing money in his first share savings account;

some of his birthday money,

some of his allowance money,

some of the money he earned selling lemonade.

ACTIVITY: How much money is John depositing in his account?

